Open Call: AUSSDA Data Award – Re-Using Data in Research and Teaching

Have you worked with data hosted in the AUSSDA Dataverse in your research paper or thesis? Have you created Open Educational Resources using AUSSDA data? Show us how you re-use data in research and teaching and participate in the first AUSSDA Data Award!

Whether you are a lecturer, an early stage researcher or a student – you have the chance to win a prize in one of three categories and present your work at the first ever AUSSDA User Conference, taking place on November 16th, 2022.

The categories are:

- Teaching award (in collaboration with Open Education Austria Advanced): Best OER material based on AUSSDA data (prize money: 500 EUR)
- Researcher award: Best research paper based on AUSSDA data (prize money: 500 EUR)
- Student award: Best thesis or term paper based on AUSSDA data (prize money: 500 EUR)

The prize money is not earmarked and goes directly to the winners.

Are you interested in participating? These are the general requirements your submission has to meet:

- AUSSDA data were used
- Data must be cited correctly
- Accepted languages for submissions: German and English.
- Text submissions must be in PDF format. For OER materials, all formats used by the community are accepted.

Additional information for each category:

- Teaching award: Teaching concept/sequence/material must be licensed under CC BY or CC BY SA and must provide additional information (metadata) necessary for the re-use as an OER (more details here). We will publish the submissions on the AUSSDA Zenodo Community as well as the OERhub.
- Researcher award: Conference papers or journal articles (published and unpublished) by early stage researchers are accepted.
- Student award: Term papers, BA theses and MA theses are accepted.

Please send your submissions to info@aussda.at.

The submission deadline for all three categories is September 18th, 2022.

The award ceremony will take place in Vienna (face to face) on November 16th, 2022. We will inform the winners in advance.

For more detailed information on the award and the User Conference, please visit our website.